Blue Sky Luxury Travels takes to the skies with private jet travel

From grocery deliveries to a global luxury travel company, Shanna Dickerson has certainly come a long way with her company Blue Skies Luxury Travels. Booking private villas, private islands and yacht charters, Dickerson now takes to the skies to offer luxury air travel through a new partnership with Magellan Jets.

“I think it’s important for businesses and entrepreneurs to be able to pivot,” she said. “One of the most important things I learned is just to really trust my intuition. I didn’t see this vision in 2010. You have to keep your eyes open and pay attention, because what you think is your business could do a total 180 in a couple of years.”

New for Blue Sky in 2021 is the addition of a partnership with Magellan Jets to offer private air travel to and from the luxury accommodations Blue Sky offers.

“I love their safety ratings. That’s hugely important to me,” said Dickerson. “Their staff is incredible and their three owners are great. Everything fell into place with this company, and it came at the perfect time because with COVID-19, more of my clients are interested in private air travel. So again, COVID-19 has been another pivot that has expanded my business.”
